My Ancestral Lines to Welsh Kings

[Originally written on 12 September 2021]

Introduction

I recently wrote about my ancestral lines going back to Scottish kings in the Middle Ages – see:

http://www.burksoakley.com/QuincyOakleyGenealogy/83-LordWilliamMoray.pdf

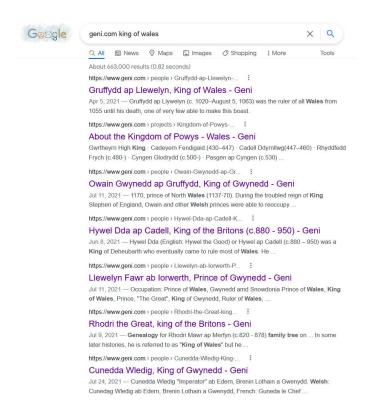

Earlier, I wrote about my ancestral lines going back to Hywel Dda ap Cadell, King of the Britons. He was a Welsh king who was my 28th-great grandfather:

http://www.burksoakley.com/QuincyOakleyGenealogy/73-Hywel-Dda-ap-Cadell.pdf

I wondered if there were additional Welsh kings in my ancestry. While I have neither the time nor the ability to research my ancestral lines going back twenty or more generations, I am fortunate to be able to connect my family tree to the "World Family Tree" on the Geni.com website. As of early September 2021, there are almost 160 million people in this tree – see:

https://www.geni.com/worldfamilytree

So I Googled "gen.com king of wales" (no quotes) – and this turned up a number of people from the Middle Ages who indeed had titles such as "King of Wales":

I went through this list to see if I was descended from any of them – and that is what this chapter is about.

Welsh Kings on the Geni.com Website

This line back to Gruffydd ap Llewelyn goes through my paternal grandmother, Kate Cameron Burks. As an aside, recall that "ap" in Welsh means "son of".

Also good photos of him from the Google search on the kings.

Owain Gwynedd ap Gruffydd, King of Gwynedd:

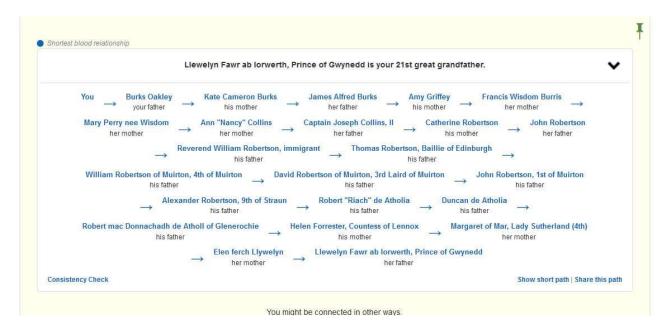

This line goes back through my paternal grandfather, Ray Miller Oakley. On this line, Owain was my  $22^{nd}$ -great grandfather.

Hywel Dda ap Cadell, King of the Britons. He was the focus of Ch. 73:

This is identical to the previous line back to Madog ap Maredudd, King of Powys, and then the line to Hywel goes through Madog's father, while the line to Owain goes through his mother.

Llewelyn Fawr ab lorwerth, Prince of Gwynedd

This is another line that goes back through the Burks side of my family. Show the similarity with the first Burks line.

Finally – not a direct ancestor – he was just an uncle – I am descended from his sister.

Lots of pictures of these kings in the Google search:

So this is pretty amazing – all these Welsh kings in my ancestry.

In seeing the results of this first Google search, I learned that several of my ancestors were listed as "King of Powys". So I next did a Google search:

This gave me some additional Welsh to examine on Geni.com – were any of them my ancestors? Well, I recognize Madog ap Maredudd and Bleddyn ap Cynfyn. So let's look at the others:

King of Powys Eiludd ap Cynan

This line goes back through Madog ap Maredudd.

|           | Cyngen Glodrydd, King of Powys is your third great grandmother's husband's 35th great grandfather.   |

Note the in-law relationship – through Lucy Lyon's husband. But I don't think that this part of the tree on Geni.com is correct – and it doesn't have the husband's name.

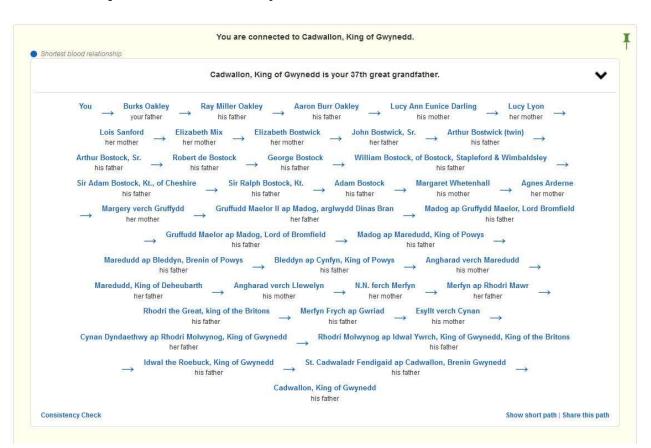

I also saw a number of King of Gwynedd, so I did a Google search for that:

This turned up some additional possibilities.
